Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1 – 20 are presented for the examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1 – 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Jerger et al. [hereinafter as Jerger], US Patent 6,321,334.
4. As to claims 1, and 9, Jerger teaches a computer system and method comprising:
 - a. a default policy [system security policy] used to determine responses [actions to be taken] to detected events [downloading request]; and
 - b. a configurable event policy [configurable protected operation associated with security zone] used to modify [change] the default event policy [security policy] to changes responses to [based on] detected events [user request] [col. 3, lines 5 – 54].
5. As to claims 2 - 5, and 17, Jerger discloses administering permissions associated with a security zone in computer system security management with hierarchical system [security zone with different levels] during browsing session between a client and server therefore, he teaches a database to store configurable protected operation associated with security zone too [fig. 2, 3].
6. As to claims 6, and 14, Jerger discloses the system and method of security policy between the client computer and server, which, inherently includes a network device too.

Art Unit: 2116

7. As to claims 10 – 13, and 18 – 20, Jerger teaches to configure the security protection with different user settings [fig. 4A – 8] to change the security protection from high [most] secure to low [least] secure and even custom settings which, are not defined in policy.

8. As to claims 7 – 8, and 15 – 16, it is inherent to computer system to pop-up the messages for different events for a fault or a resource usage notification.
